

Pinal County Historical Museum

715 S Main Street, Florence, AZ 85132

520-868-4382

pchsmuseum@yahoo.com

Stephanie Joyner, Executive Director

520-868-4382

pchsdirector01@gmail.com

Date: February 19, 2020

News Release: For Immediate Release

Inside the Notorious Winne Ruth Judd Murder Case That Shocked the Nation

Florence, AZ: The Pinal County Historical Museum (PCHS Museum) presents a special presentation and book signing titled, “Inside the Notorious Winnie Ruth Judd Murder Case That Shocked the Nation” on March 29, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. located at 715 S Main Street, Florence. Join us for a presentation and book signing by Jana Bommersbach, one of Arizona’s most honored and respected journalist and author of “The Trunk Murderess: Winnie Ruth Judd.”

Winnie Ruth Judd's mugshot in 1931

Bommersbach will give an intimate look at what happened and who all the actors were, with insights into Winnie Ruth Judd in her last days as she knew Judd well. Learn about the “Notorious Trunk Murderess” that shocked the nation in conjunction PCHS Museum’s new Winnie Ruth Judd display that was funded by the Arizona Historical Society.

Admission is $5 per adult and free for Museum Members.

PCHS Museum is a small non-profit history museum that celebrates the people and cultures in Florence and in the surrounding towns in Pinal County from prehistoric times to the 1950s. The Museum offers educational programming and events, in addition to permanent and rotating displays to preserve the rich history in the region for 5,000 visitors annually. We are open to the public 5 days a week from September through June. Learn more at facebook.com/pchsmuseum1 and pinalcountyhistoricalmuseum.org.

###